

Pledge of Confidentiality

EmpowerMe365 Innovative Business Services is committed to maintaining and protecting client private confidential information. We respect your privacy and will guard any information shared throughout the course of business to the highest level of discretion, including but not limited to immediate shredding and destruction of unused documents and proprietary information that is exchanged between EmpowerMe365 Innovative Business Services and the client.

All clients are required to sign a non-disclosure agreement before work commences. Please understand that we take the PII (personally identifiable information) and any potential exposure seriously and anyone who works with our company will be strongly encouraged to provide the same level of service and respect to our clients.

Should you have any questions, comments or concerns regarding confidentiality, please contact the Principal, Frenetta Tate at 281-728-7547.
